

Windows Enterprise Status Current Departmental Organizational Units

May 15, 2012

Current Organizational Units

Most departments on the Iowa State campus are using the Windows Enterprise Active Directory forest for production operation. The following is a list of Organizational Units (“OUs”) currently in use and the number of computer systems within each OU. Some OUs are under active development/use, others are purely “experimental” in nature and have had little work done on them. OUs with “zero” or “one” computer in them are in the “experimental/development” category.

A “two level” OU organization is maintained at the enterprise level. The first level of OUs contain the “college” or “major administrative unit” that may hold several departments. The second level of OUs (within the college/major-administrative-unit) are the “departmental” OUs. All names are based on official ISU abbreviations. Departments control all lower (third level down) OU names.
