

An example of the “Red Screen of Internet Death”. This screen is displayed when a “blocked system” (due to virus-infection, malicious activity, etc) tries to access Internet resources off-campus. The “reason code” will indicate the reason for blocking the system.

The text of this screen is under development at this time and may change in the future.